been on here, and never return. They thief you with many many fake profiles as well you can't cancel your prescription. No replies to any emails to support to close it, but: they even continue to take money of your bank account!

The site claims to be a Dating site but if you read the T&C (Terms & Conditions) somewhere in the very fine print you will read this: 2.2 We create user profiles for use by our customer support representatives for the support, marketing and improvement of the Service. Our customer support representatives are encouraged to speak with our members and also to stimulate conversation between members by making introductions or recommendations. This is a vital part of the Service we provide. 2.3 We may, from time to time, send electronic communications to ask how our members are using certain aspects of the Service and to stimulate conversation between members. 2.4 There is no guarantee that you will find a date, a companion or an activity partner, or that you will meet any of our members in person. I also read somewhere: "the site is for entertainment purposes only" I can't seem to find it now ALWAYS READ THE T&C, TOS, and many other terms

How can sex make you money on the web? In concert with other web-sites that are not, in and of themselves, scams (Craig's List "casual encounters," but also do not weed out scammers. Ironically, but posting fake posts there from (of course) women, horny men (me) are convinced that women need a "protection" of ID verification by a company (Benaughty.com). Do the women ever really exist? Probably not, but in order to communicate with the "women" over the web-site, you have to pay. That's how sex can make you money on the web. Brilliant!
